

Dinner For The Circulators Of El Paso Herald

January was another record-breaking month for business in the circulation department of The El Paso Herald. Each month that the previous month's record business is broken, Mr. Frie celebrates by giving a dinner to his force. January was the second month in the history of the paper, both in number of papers sold in the city and in amount of money taken in. The result was the celebration Tuesday evening.

The dinner was held in the West Hotel Country club, where a tried chicken dinner was served.

Mr. Frie, president, introduced various members of his force to tell how they did it and how they intended to break new records in the future. After the talks, all adjourned to the hotel at 10 o'clock, where they danced until midnight.

Because of the rapid growth of the circulation of The Herald it is constantly adding to its circulation force. There were 100 new men on the dinner Tuesday night and seven or eight more men were unable to be in the city to attend.

'Evangeline'

This picture has attracted much attention because of the extreme beauty of its scenes and its unswerving fidelity to the original poem as well as because of the work of Miss Miriam Cooper in the title role.

It is seldom that a motion picture so exquisite in story and treatment is presented to the public, and Mr. Fox is to be congratulated on his latest contribution to the betterment of screen entertainment.

Tomorrow, for three days, Madame Traverso in her latest Fox feature, "The Hell Ship," a successful sea story, and one you will like. "The Fox" news reel is the added attraction.

Assassin Fires School After Killing Woman

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 23.—Miss Florence Howell, 26, owner of the Huntington hall school for girls in South Pasadena, was shot and killed in her room last night by an unknown assailant who then fired a shot into the kitchen and set fire to the building. The fire was discovered by Miss Howell's father, aged 48, who extinguished the flames.

The father then attempted to call Miss Howell, but repeated rappings brought no response and when her room door was forced she was found dead.

Examination showed that the slayer had entered the house through a back window by forcing the door.

The body of W. J. Howell, husband of the school housekeeper, was found later in a school room, with a bullet through the heart. Mrs. Howell said she and her husband had been separated and that he threatened her.

Lynching Soon To Pass In Southland, Says Head Of Tuskegee Institute

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 23.—Within a few years there will be no more lynching of negroes in the south, Dr. Robert H. Moton, the negro head of Tuskegee institute, predicted in an address here last night. The governors of North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky have pledged themselves that there will be no lynching in those states, while they are in office.

An instance of what he said was the very gratifying attitude of the south toward the negro, Dr. Moton said the governor of North Carolina recently recommended a negro committee as "brothers."

Lady Bonham-Carter, daughter of former premier Asquith, of England, is being urged to contest for a seat in the British parliament.

EL PASO SUNDAY SCHOOLS PLAN 6000 NEW MEMBERS

El Paso Sunday schools are soon to launch a drive for 6000 new members. Each church has set its own goal and will work to that end. According to a meeting held in the First Baptist church Tuesday night, it was shown there are at present about 2300 Sunday school members in the city.

Dr. F. M. Hughes presided over the meeting, and final plans were made for the campaign, which will be staged under auspices of the El Paso Sunday school association, of which W. V. Long is secretary.

Kelly O'Neal made a report of the investigation that had been conducted concerning the present attendance of the various Sunday schools in El Paso.
